11 Member advice fees

Choose your fee option. Fees should be provided including GST. All boxes for the relevant fee option must be completed. Blank boxes will default to nil.

- The default value for each member advice fee is 0% or $0, unless you agree and specify otherwise below in conjunction with your financial adviser.
- Member advice fees can only be deducted from your super/pension account if they relate to advice you receive about your super/pension benefits, insurance and investments.
- Where you agree to a member advice fee, please ensure you sign the 'Member advice fees' declaration in Step 16.
- The member advice fee(s) paid to your financial adviser and their Licensee (and quoted in this section) are inclusive of GST. The actual amount deducted from your account may be less than the amount quoted. This is because the Fund may be able to claim a reduced input tax credit (RITC) on some of these fees. Where the Fund is able to claim an RITC, the benefit is passed on to you which effectively reduces the fee. Note that the RITC rules are subject to change and this may impact the RITC available in the future.

Restricted investments

I acknowledge that if I make an investment in an investment option that is designated as a restricted investment (in the investment menu as updated on the Pitcher Partners website), I have been informed that:

- The Trustee is not required to transfer the whole of my withdrawal benefit (or a partial amount requested to be transferred) within 30 days after receiving all information prescribed by Super law (including all information that is necessary to process my request)
- The reasons why an investment is illiquid is due to the underlying fund manager imposing withdrawal restrictions or having the ability to extend the withdrawal period in certain market conditions
- The maximum period in which a transfer must be effected is the period set out in the underlying product disclosure statement for the restricted investment which may be up to 365 days for some restricted investments.

I understand and accept that a period longer than the 30 days mentioned above is required (possibly in respect of the whole of the requested transfer amount) because of the illiquid nature of the investment.
