2 Your duty of disclosure

Your duty of disclosure to IOOF Investment Management Limited (IIML) and TAL Life Limited ABN 70 050 109 450, AFSL 237848 (TAL):

Before you enter in to a contract of life insurance with an insurer, you have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to disclose to the insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of insurance and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to TAL and IIML before you extend, vary or reinstate a contract of life insurance. Your duty however, does not require disclosure on the matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurer
- that is of common knowledge
- that the insurer knows or, in the ordinary course of his business, ought to know
- disclosure of which is waived by the insurer.

The duty of disclosure applies even after this application is completed until the insurer advises acceptance of insurance.

Non-disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure and the insurer would not have entered into the contract on any terms if the failure had not occurred, the insurer may avoid the contract within three years of entering into it. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the insurer may avoid the contract at any time.

An insurer who is entitled to avoid a contract of life insurance may, within three years of entering into it, elect not to avoid it but to reduce the sum that you have been insured for in accordance with a formula that takes into account the premium that would have been payable if you had disclosed all relevant matters to the insurer.

All questions on this application are relevant as to whether or not the insurer accepts the risk and, if so, on what terms.
